

CHRISTINA L. SMITH

OF COUNSEL

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

Christina is a highly skilled attorney who brings a wealth of legal experience to her diverse family law practice.

After beginning her legal career working with child victims of abuse and neglect, she spent several years working on large corporate civil litigation cases. She soon returned to her personal and professional passion of working with people going through the extremely difficult experiences inherent in divorce. She practices family law with a sincere motivation to help people in crisis.

Christina's analytical and strategic approach to family law is a clear benefit, and she brings additional training and certification in Dispute Resolution, Collaborative Law Training and Guardian Ad Litem service to better serve all her clients.
