

KELLY RUTLEDGE

ATTORNEY

PRACTICE EMPHASIS

Kelly's legal experience is multi-faceted. As a member of the firm's Real Estate Law practice group, Kelly provides transactional support in real estate sales and acquisitions, leasing, financing, development-related issues, easements, and co-ownership arrangements. She also has experience in the specialized area of closing purchases and sales of Seattle's floating homes and house barges.

As a member of the firm's Corporate and Business Law practice group, Kelly advises clients on business entity selection and formation, and reviews business-related contracts.

Kelly also assists clients in drafting wills and trusts as part of her Estate Planning, Probate and Trust practice. She advises clients on a range of estate planning and probate issues, including guardianship, powers of attorney, and tax advice with respect to the gift tax and estate tax.
